*Synchronous Instruction will include live/real time instruction from teachers. Live sessions should occur two days per week.

*Asynchronous Instruction occurs when a live session is not held, teachers will provide pre-recorded videos (preferably videos including teacher presence) and may use pre-recorded videos from grade-level/content area colleagues..

*Online Student Support consists of guided practice, small group instruction, and formative assessments. One day per week, small group instruction will replace online student support.

*During the Daily Office Hour each block, parents and students will be able to communicate with teachers during this time frame via phone, email, or WebEx. Teachers will have the preference to determine how this communication will occur.
