

PSYCHOLOGY

Teacher Name: Betsy Galloway
Teacher Email: Bbgalloway@madisoncity.k12.al.us

Course Description:

The study of psychology requires a flexible, investigative classroom environment that allows for experimentation and participatory activities. Students are encouraged to use critical-thinking skills employed by psychologists in the practice of their science. They also apply knowledge of the brain and its functioning to the understanding of human behavior.

Course Objectives:

Students will:

- Define psychology as a discipline and identify its goals as a science
 - Analyze psychological theories, principles, and practices
 - Differentiate scientific and non-scientific approaches to knowledge
 - Explain the value of both basic and applied psychological research with human and non-human animals
 - Identify careers individuals can pursue in psychological science
 - Identify ways individuals can use psychological science in any career

Classroom Expectations:

You are expected to conduct yourself in a respectful and productive manner. In addition to all the rules and expectations listed in the student handbook, I expect you to have a positive attitude, treat others with respect, practice self-discipline, and demonstrate responsibility. If these conditions are not met, you can expect one-on-one meetings with me, parent/instructor conferencing, and administrative action, if necessary.

Concerning the use of cell phones and other electronic devices:

Devices should be on silent and kept in your purse, backpack, or pocket during class unless otherwise instructed. You may not place it on your desk. Parents, guardians, and other family members should call the front office in case of emergency.

If you violate this rule, you can expect the following consequences:

- First offense – The phone or device will be placed in a phone chart at the front of the room. You may pick it up at the end of class.
 - Second offense – The phone or device will again be placed in a phone chart at the front of the room until the end of class and a parent/guardian will be notified.
 - Third offense – This is defiance and I will notify an administrator.

Grading Policy:

Major assessments will count 70 percent of your grade. Homework and classwork will account for 30 percent of your grade. Grades will be updated weekly in PowerSchools. Each grading period will consist of nine weeks.

Make-up Work Policy:

Make-up tests will only be given to a student who has an excused absence. The student must make arrangements with the teacher to take a make-up test. Tests may be taken during Patriot Path with prior arrangement from each teacher. A student only has two chances (the next two Patriot Paths after the absence) to make up a test. All make-up tests will be administered in the designated classroom on the Patriot Path session roster.

Homework/Classwork: Students who are absent for excused reasons will be permitted to make up missed work. It is the student's responsibility to get their work assignments the day upon return to school and complete the assignments according to a time frame determined by the teacher within two weeks of the date of the last absence. Grades of zero will be assigned for assignments missed because of unexcused absences.

Text and Other Required Reading:

There are no required readings for this course. Readings within the class will be multiple different types of text that will be provided in class and online.

Materials and Supplies Needed:

Charged laptop and charger brought to class daily
