

West Madison Elementary School

Vision

Midtown Elementary School will do whatever it takes to help all students go beyond their personal expectations.

Mission

To provide a student-centered curriculum to develop life long learners who demonstrate confidence in themselves and others.

Beliefs

All students are valued individuals with a unique ability to learn the highest level.

Cultivate High expectations and mutual respect.

Foster a collaborative community.

Maintain rigorous, diverse and relevant curriculum.

Ensure students feel safe and respected.

Integrate and Optimize technology.

Reading Achievement

Objectives

- 75% of students in K-5 will demonstrate proficiency in reading as measured by iReady.

Critical Initiatives

- Professional Learning
- Small-Group Instruction

Key Measures

- Walkthrough Feedback
- Data Discussion/Meeting with tutors and teachers
- RTI PM Data

Math Achievement

Objectives

- 80% of the students will demonstrate proficiency in math as measured by iReady Math

Critical Initiatives

- Small-Group Instruction
- Professional Learning

Key Measures

- iReady Math Assessment
- Teachers/Tutor observations and Assessment Data
- Walkthrough Data

Parent/Family Engagement

Objectives

- To provide parents with the tools in order to assist their children in reading and math

Critical Initiatives

- Parent University and Soar into the Summer Meeting

Key Measures

- Sign in Sheets; Information Packets
- iReady and DIBELS Assessments

Key Measures

- iReady Assessment
- DIBELS

Key Measures

- Data Discussion/Meeting with Tutors

Key Measures