

Permission to Publish Consent Form

Columbia Elementary believes in the value of highlighting student work and achievement. We believe that publishing on the World Wide Web is an enriching opportunity for our students to gain success in the 21st century. “Publishing Activity” may include posting or publishing individual pictures, group pictures, artwork, writing samples, graphics, a research project, or audio/video. Your child will only be published with your permission. This form does NOT refer to in-school publishing such as: yearbook, school pictures, group class pictures, Morning Show, etc. Please notify the school in writing if you wish to be excluded from in-school publishing.

Guidelines

- “Publishing Activity” outside the school system will NOT contain personal identifiable information such as home address or phone number. Elementary students will be identified by first name and last initial only.
- “Publishing Activity” will follow school board policies and guidelines.
- “Publishing Activity” is included but not limited to: MCS school websites, MCS educational television station (WOW channel 3), online and printed newspaper articles (Madison County Record/Huntsville Times), and school sponsored social media outlets such as Facebook, Instagram, Twitter, etc.
