Textbook Information	Tradition of Excellence, Book 1
Course Description	Beginner Band is a year-long class designed for the student who has not played a band instrument before. Membership is open to students in 6 th , 7 th , and 8 th grades. Fundamentals of playing a musical instrument and accurate reading of music are stressed. Instruments must be provided by each student. Students must attend an instrument screening where the band directors will help guide your student through the instrument selection process and provide information for purchasing or renting an instrument. Students in band are expected to participate in three evening concerts each year for a major portion of their grade.
Course Objectives	Students in Beginner Band will learn to control and maintain a good characteristic tone on their instruments. They will be able to maintain a steady pulse within a musical meter, and will demonstrate accurate rhythmic proficiency for both notes and rests. Students will develop appropriate instrument fundamentals including tone production, articulation, fingerings, phrasing, and dynamics. Students will develop correct playing posture and hand position. Students will also exhibit appropriate etiquette during rehearsals and performances.
Course Outline	Overarching Objective: Basic Music Reading and Instrument Fundamentals (year-long) Unit 1: Holiday Music Preparation (Final Assessment - Winter Concert) Unit 2: Dessert Concert Music Preparation (Final Assessment - Dessert Concert) Unit 3: Solo and Ensemble Fundamentals (Final Assessment - Solo Performance) Unit 4: Spring Concert Music Preparation (Final Assessment - Spring Concert)
